Professional Summary

Having been involved in the physiotherapy sector for more than seven years, I am equipped with all of the hard-core skills and educational qualifications necessary to thrive within the competitive field. I specialise in client-centred therapies and take a great deal of pride in my ability to build long-lasting relationships with patients. As I am also a personal trainer, I am well aware of the physical demands that many individuals must overcome in order to lead healthier and more fulfilling lives. I aim to partner with an organisation that embraces the very same philosophy. I also hope to become part of a well-rounded team in order to further enhance my existing talents.

Core Qualifications

Some of the recognised certifications that I possess are:

- Level 2 Diploma in Health, Fitness and Exercise Nutrition.
- Level 2 Diploma in Instructing Exercise and Fitness.
- A current member of the Chartered Society of Physiotherapy.
- City and Guilds: Exercise and Fitness (VRQ) (4924) Level 3.

Experience

2012-Present: Qualified Physiotherapist. Some core competencies involve:

- Managing the individual needs of geriatric patients.
- Supervising therapeutic classes of between 15 and 20 attendees.
- Working with private health care workers in order to determine the best treatment options.

2010-2012: Assistant Physiotherapist. Duties included:

- Administering massages, flexibility exercises and utilising cold laser technology to treat injuries.
- General tasks such as scheduling appointments and contacting patients.
- Working together with senior physiotherapists.

2009-2010: Personal Trainer (London-based gym). A handful of specialties were:

- Supervising fitness and aerobics classes.
- Advising clients on diet and supplementation.
- Creating bespoke programmes based around the needs of the individual.
- Injury treatment and/or prevention.

Education

- University of East Anglia (2004-2008): Physiotherapy BSc (Hons.)
- University of East Anglia (2009-2010): Physiotherapy MSc

The right CV (or CV) format, professional CV template - what to choose? Use a list of points to showcase your skills. Your CV should be consistent. Creative templates will be effective for creative positions such as computer graphics, advertising and marketing specialist, designer, photographer, copywriter. Read the job offer carefully! In any official recruitment process, or at least in the vast majority, the candidate is required to send a CV. Photo Courtesy: Violeta Stoimenova/E+/Getty Images Because vitamin C-rich foods are so readily available today, symptoms of inadequate vitamin C intake are also rare in the United States. The hobby works well for candidates with little professional experience. Remember that those that appear on the ad are the most important ones for the employer, pay attention to those that are at the top of the list of requirements (usually those requirements are the most important). Use similar vocabulary, job offer phrases while writing your CV, it will make you well understood and appreciated as your perfect candidate. I wanted to remind you that there is not a single template, not a single universal document, not a CV template designed and adapted for all jobs. Sources used, titles: Arial Black, other contents: Calibri. A creative and elegant 2-column document with graphic elements. The CV is the answer to a specific job offer. The classic CV will be tested in technical professions and is also a good option for employees in the financial and insurance sector. As a result, your document can be distinguished from other applications, and this may be an opportunity to move on to the next stage of contracting. Are you a salesman, manager?
