Fire at Paper Factory!

By Mary Fairy
NEWS REPORTER

Firefighters battle big fire at the Alyfour Paper Factory.

Last night firefighters battled a fire at the Alyfour Paper Factory on Kitson Road, Hampton. The fire started in the basement of the building and quickly spread through to the main paper area.

Because so much paper was on fire, it was hard for the firefighters to put it out. The factory was holding almost 20 boxes of paper and firefighters had to wait till it had almost all burnt before they started to stop the flames.

Firefighters do not know what started the fire as so much of the factory is now covered in wreckage. Some think it was an electrical spark from old tools in the basement that might have started the fire, but it is not clear.

The owners of the Alyfour Paper Factory are very upset and might not be able to rebuild the factory because of the damage. They have asked for help during this hard time.
