There were no reports of injuries to the passengers or crew.A pilot on a Delta Air Lines flight from Minneapolis to San Francisco was arrested by federal agents after landing, according to reports.Travel outlet View from the Wing reported that officers "stormed to the front" of flight 2809 following its arrival at San Francisco International Airport on July 26. The plane landed at approximately 9:35 p.m. following a delay for heavy fog, according to the San Francisco Chronicle.Neither outlet named the pilot.A passenger on the flight told the Chronicle that she witnessed at least 10 law enforcement officers, including agents from Homeland Security Investigations and people identifying as air marshals, involved in the arrest and that a second team of agents retrieved the pilot's belongings."A group of people with badges, guns, and different agency vests/markings were pushing their way up through the aisle to the cockpit," the passenger told the newspaper. "It was rage-inducing to see someone being disappeared right in front of me."Footage following the arrest published by View from the Wing shows some of the alleged officers wearing plainclothes and badges. It is unclear from the footage if the officers were masked.Delta Air Lines declined to comment, referring USA TODAY to law enforcement.USA TODAY reached out to Homeland Security and the TSA for comment and did not receive an immediate response. ICE directed the inquiry to the U.S. Attorney's Office.USA TODAY reached out to the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Northern District of California and did not receive an immediate response.This story has been updated. Whether you check in on delta.com, the Fly Delta app or in-person at the airport, you'll be expected to present government-issued photo identification along with your boarding pass. International travelers also need additional documentation, which can be fulfilled with Delta FlyReadySM. If you need help while checking in, were here to assist. Up to 24 hours before departure, you can check in online. Select Check In in the page header or go to My Trips. If you aren't logged in, enter your confirmation number, SkyMiles number or credit card number to access your itinerary. You can print your boarding pass or get an eBoarding Pass on your mobile device. Fly Delta App Make your travel day even easier with the Fly Delta app. After download, check in as a guest, log in or register for a SkyMiles account. From there, add your trip confirmation number to access your trips. When you're logged in, you'll be automatically checked in 24 hours before your flight, and you can use Today Mode to see your boarding pass, baggage tracker and more. Airport Kiosk Need to check in at the airport? Already checked in but not ready to go through airport security? Our kiosks are a fast and easy solution. By entering your SkyMiles, confirmation or eTicket number, you can check in for your flight, print your boarding pass, add any checked bags, make a change to your seat, complete a service request and add your frequent flyer number to your profile all from the touch of your finger. Airport Check-In Desk Need check-in assistance at the airport? Speak with us in-person at any of our Delta Air Lines check-in desks. You'll see an area clearly labeled for Delta flights, with a special Sky Priority boarding lane for Gold, Platinum and Diamond Medallion Members, and Delta One, Delta Premium Select and Delta First passengers. Airport Curbside If you'd prefer to check in as soon as you exit the car, find a Delta curbside desk located at passenger drop-off at most U.S. airports. Here, you can check your baggage directly after you've exited your vehicle. If you're bringing oversized baggage, you may have to bring it inside to an oversized baggage area. There is no fee for using curbside check-in at the airport, but gratuities are always appreciated for outstanding service.
