Gevans medical practice

Gevans Medical Practice, located on Givan Avenue in the Bronx, is hosting an event featuring the movement-based practice of 5 Rhythms. This practice offers participants the opportunity for physical and emotional release and healing through simple movement to various rhythms. The event takes place on May 27, 2025, from 1pm to 2pm at the Price Center's LeFrak Auditorium. In related news, Montefiore Medical Center is a leading health system in New York, known for its medical school, research, and technology. However, no events are currently listed under this category on May 27, 2025. A different event is being held at the same location by Montefiore Einstein, which includes a community health fair for mothers-to-be and new parents. This event, scheduled for May 21, 2025, will feature educational sessions, unit tours, and expert conversations about prenatal care, newborn health, and more. A notable achievement was also announced recently, where Dr. Mintie Indar-Maraj received the Joan H. Bilder Nursing Excellence Award for her dedication to clinical nursing practice. Source: gevanmedicalpractice.com Fostering a culture of support and growth within the nursing community is essential, as highlighted by Dr. Maraj's dedication to nurse-led research for over a decade. Additionally, she serves as an adjunct professor at City University of New York.
