How would your life be without your facebook account? Although Facebook is a popular social website, some people take it too far often overshadowing the people who use facebook in a positive, even productive ways. This paper will contains information about all the good and bad things about facebook.

Mark Zuckerberg is the founder of facebook while attending Harvard University. Mr. Zuckerberg launch the opening of facebook in 2004 of February after he launch facebook within 24 hour 1,200 Harvard students had signed up to this new exciting social website. However shortly afterwards more than half of the undergraduate had a profile on facebook. The year 2006 Mark Zuckerberg was well known because now the network was extended to anybody with an email address that wanted a facebook and also it was free to join at all times. From that point on Mark Zuckerberg was a millionaire.

By this time everyone has a facebook; it was a good social website for family and friend to stay in touch. Old friend from high school and college were now able to stay in touch once they have graduate, and it was also good for the holidays when you have out of town family. Facebook was known as a good dating site were you could talk and meet new people or just friends that are your facebook friend that you haven't meet yet. In the mean time since you can talk to your family out of town you can upload pictures and videos of your family and show your entire facebook friend. By the way facebook is good for those days you miss school or work and you need to know what has went on while you wasn't there, so in that case you can just inbox/message one of your friend and just ask what did you miss while you were out.

Not to mention there are...

... middle of paper ...

.... If the person that is hacking your page has a serious problem then this can lead to a dangerous situation (bullying, stalking, and harassment).

Mainly this passage was to notify the reader about the pros' and cons' of Facebook.

Facebook is a good social website it just depends on how you make your journey while using it. This is a quote by Mark Zuckerberg the founder of Facebook "Our mission is to make the world more open and connected. We do this by giving people the power to share whatever they want and be connected to whoever they want, no matter where they are."
