Part One

1) The placement organization is called Yorkwoods Community Church (Salvation Army) Kid-Z-Own After School Program.

Address: 20 Yorkwoods Gate North York, Ontario

Phone: ext 107

2) The organization mandate and anti-discrimination policies are infused with the mission statement of the Kid-Z-Own program found in the official Kid-Z-Own After School Program Manual for Volunteers and Placement Students (2013):

“Through the demonstration of God’s love, kid-z-own serves children, youth and parents by providing safe, affordable places for kids after school where they can develop to their fullest potential. The program is offered to all children regardless of race, colour, creed, or sex. This program allows children to feel stimulated recreationally, creatively and intellectually all in an atmosphere of acceptance while respecting cultural and religious diversity.” (p. 5)

However as the program works in accordance to the Salvation Army which is a Christian Community Church which follows their own mission statement: “The Salvation Army, Yorkwoods Community Church, as a branch of the Christian Church, seeks to exemplify Jesus Christ to the community through worship, Godly living and loving practical service without discrimination.” .” (Volunteer Kid-z-own placement student/volunteer manual p. 1, 2013)

3) Kid-Z-Own program serves children between the ages of 6 to 12 years of age and runs from 3pm until 6pm Monday to Friday. Our program runs off research provided by “criminologists and social workers” that have concluded that “the most critical hours for inner-city children are between 3 and 6pm and during the summer months.” (Kid-z-own placement student/volunteer manual, pg 5, 2013) They find that during these h...

Though at times very difficult, my experiences at the Kid-Z-Own program have been very rewarding; I have seen myself grow through the daily conversations, tasks and overall relationships with the children. Although children are not a sector I saw myself working with when I began to search for placement opportunities, I have found the importance and benefits of work-ing with them. I hope to grow along with the children and instill any life lesson that they take away with them after our time is done together. I see so much potential and each and every child and with enough support, discipline and encouragement they have the tools to be anyone they want to be.
