According with S. Marilyn, (2009), Art History Portable Edition, Ancient Art Chapter Five, to knowledge about Greek history is important to understanding its arts; knowledge of its religious beliefs is indispensable, because most of their art pieces are based on myth and legends of their gods. Gods that were heroes and victorious warriors that deserved to be praised and recognized for others. The best way for the Greeks arties was creating living statues and majestic figures that reflect power and strength of their gods. The chapter also refers that Greek arties curve perfect bodies because they develop a concept of human supremacy by studied the human figure S. Marlyn, (2009) and represent S. Marilyn explained on the Chapter Five that Greeks built their temples in a single room on base of mathematic ratios with long columns made it by rocks and marble creating, impression of great stability and permanence (Ancient Art, (2009) Elements of Architecture Chapter Five, pgs. 117-120), to be used as exhibitions places of their sculptures and have a placeto performance, train...
